Do you enjoy working with children?
Do you like being part of a supportive and enthusiastic team?
Are you looking for a small part-time job that fits in with other commitments?

If the answer to any of those questions is 'yes', then a job as a Midday Supervisor could be the right one for you.

The polite and well-behaved children at Hemingford Grey Primary School are supervised and cared for at lunchtime by a great team, who are looking for two new members. Duties include supporting children in the dinner hall, ensuring they are safe and happy outside and engaging them in lunchtime games. The successful candidates need to be friendly, hard-working and passionate about working with young people.

If you are interested in beginning, or developing, a career working with children, this could be just the right step. You will receive support from a team leader and have access to regular team meetings and training opportunities.

Our school demonstrates a commitment to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people by providing a safe working ethos through a range of rigorous policies and procedures. We expect all staff to share this commitment.

An enhanced Disclosure and Barring check will be required for this post (a check which is undertaken by all employees who work with children).

For an application form, or if you have any questions or would like further information, please contact Mrs Coulter in the school office.
